With the blessing of His Grace, Bishop Gregory, we will be having monthly unction services. Unction is one of the seven sacraments of the Orthodox Church. It is not reserved exclusively for the dying or for Holy Wednesday. Rather, it is a healing sacrament which can be performed at any time of the year. It is open to all Orthodox Christians who require healing of both the body and the soul. Please come and experience this healing sacrament.

In conjunction with our church school's study of the Divine Liturgy, a "teaching" Liturgy will be held on Sunday October, 30. Beginning at 9:30 AM, Fr. Nick will vest and perform the proskomedia so that all will be able to see. Please do your best to attend Liturgy early this morning so that all, young and old, will be able to see this part of the Divine Liturgy which is often done before you arrive.

The myrh-streaming icon of the Virgin Mary Kardiotissa, Tender Hearted, will be at our deanery parish of St. John the Baptist in Hermitage, PA on Friday, December 16. ## To Ponder

“The Holy Scriptures lead us to God and open the path to the knowledge of God.”
—St. John Chrysostom

“Of all the afflictions that burden the human race, there is not one, whether spiritual or bodily, that cannot be healed by the Holy Scriptures.”
—St. John Chrysostom

“Just as those who are deprived of light cannot walk straight, so also those who do not behold the ray of the Holy Scriptures must necessarily sin, since they walk in the deepest darkness.”
—St. John Chrysostom

“A humble man who lives a spiritual life, when he reads the Holy Scriptures, will relate all things to himself and not to others.”
—St. Mark the Ascetic

“In all things that you find in the Holy Scriptures, seek out the purpose of the words, that you may enter into the depth of the thoughts of the saints and understand them with greater exactness. Do not approach the reading of the Divine Scriptures without prayer and asking the help of God. Consider prayer to be the key to the true understanding of that which is said in the Holy Scriptures.”
—St. Isaac the Syrian
