December 16-Visitation of the Myrh-Streaming Kardiotissa Icon; Hermitage, PA

With the blessing of His Grace, Bishop Gregory, we will be having monthly unction services. Unction is one of the seven sacraments of the Orthodox Church. It is not reserved exclusively for the dying or for Holy Wednesday. Rather, it is a healing sacrament which can be performed at any time of the year. It is open to all Orthodox Christians who require healing of both the body and the soul. Please come and experience this healing sacrament.

The myrh-streaming icon of the Virgin Mary Kardiotissa, Tender Hearted, will be at our deanery parish of St. John the Baptist in Hermitage, PA on Friday, December 16. This is the icon which is housed at our diocesan parish of St. George in Taylor, PA. Please do all you can to be there and to experience the presence of the Mother of God and her healing love. More information regarding times will be coming.

Very Rev. Dr. Chad Hatfield will be giving a presentation on St. Herman of Alaska on November 13. It will take place at St. Paul's Hellenic Center on Wallings Road. Tickets are $30.00 and include hors d'oeuvres, drinks, coffee and dessert. All proceeds will benefit St. Herman's House in downtown Cleveland. For tickets, please call: (216) 961-3806 or visit: www.FocusNorthAmerica.org/events

As part of our Advent Mission project, Zoe for Life, will be giving a presentation after Liturgy to our parish. This is a local, pan-Orthodox, pro-life ministry. Please make sure to attend this important presentation.

The Annual Fall Youth Encounter will take place from Friday Nov 11 - Sunday Nov 13, 2016 at Camp Nazareth in Mercer, PA. The Encounter is sponsored by the National Jr. ACRY and is open to youth ages 8-18. All Diocesan youth are invited and do not have to be a member of the Jr. ACRY to attend. The weekend will be full of fun and fellowship and will include Divine Liturgy, a religious talk with clergy, sports and a special event that is sure to be a highlight of the weekend.

To Ponder

“When you begin to read or listen to the Holy Scriptures, pray to God thus: “Lord Jesus Christ, open the ears and eyes of my heart so that I may hear Thy words and understand them, and may fulfill Thy will.” Always pray to God like this, that He might illumine your mind and open to you the power of His words. Many, having trusted in their own reason, have turned away into deception.”

—St. Ephraim the Syrian

“The proud sin greatly who, after studying secular literature and having turned to the Holy Scriptures, consider all that they say to be the Law of God, and do not endeavour to come to know the thoughts of the prophets and apostles, but seek out from the scriptures inappropriate texts for their own thoughts, as if this were a good work, and not the most defiled kind of study: to distort the thoughts of Scripture and submit them to their own intentions, in spite of obvious contradictions... It is proper to children and charlatans to try to teach that which they do not know.”

—St. Jerome

“If someone wants to be protected from tricks and remain healthy in the faith, he must confine his faith first to the authority of the Holy Scriptures, and secondly to the Tradition of the Church. But someone may ask, is not the canon of Scripture sufficient for everything, and why should we add thereto the authority of Tradition? This is because not everyone understands the Scriptures in the same way, but one explains them this way and another that way, so that it is possible to get therefrom as many thoughts as there are heads. Therefore it is necessary to be guided by the understanding of the Church ... What is tradition? It is that which has been understood by everyone, everywhere and at all times ... that which you have received, and not that which you have thought up ... So then, our job is not to lead religion where we wish it to go, but to follow it where it leads, and not to give that which is our own to our heirs, but to guard that which has been given to us.”

—St. Vincent of Lerina
