October 18-Orthodox Women's Guild Pasta Dinner

November 13-Presentation On St. Herman of Alaska

With the blessing of His Grace, Bishop Gregory, we will be having monthly unction services. Unction is one of the seven sacraments of the Orthodox Church. It is not reserved exclusively for the dying or for Holy Wednesday. Rather, it is a healing sacrament which can be performed at any time of the year. It is open to all Orthodox Christians who require healing of both the body and the soul. Please come and experience this healing sacrament.

Fr. Nick will be in Johnstown today, October 9, thru Thursday, October 13, for the Diocesan Sobor. If there are any emergencies that occur during his absence, please call Fr. Anastasios Athansiou: (412) 758-1068

A pan-orthodox spaghetti dinner, hosted by the Eastern Orthodox Women's Guild of Greater Cleveland, will be held Tuesday, October 18 at 7:00 PM at Holy Trinity Orthodox Church in Parma. Tickets are $15.00 for adults and $7.50 for children under 12. Please see Gloria Zabala for tickets.

Very Rev. Dr. Chad Hatfield will be giving a presentation on St. Herman of Alaska on November 13. It will take place at St. Paul's Hellenic Center on Wallings Road. Tickets are $30.00 and include hors d'oeuvres, drinks, coffee and dessert. All proceeds will benefit St. Herman's House in downtown Cleveland. For tickets, please call: (216) 961-3806 or visit: www.FocusNorthAmerica.org/events

To Ponder

“Draw nigh to the righteous, and through them you will draw nigh to God. Communicate with those who possess humility, and you will learn morals from them. A man who follows one who loves God becomes rich in the mysteries of God; but he who follows an unrighteous and proud man gets far away from God, and will be hated by his friends.”

—St. Isaac the Syrian

“St. Pimen the Great said: Depart from every man who loves to quarrel

—Ancient Paterikon

“If you cannot close the mouth of one who reviles his brother, at least avoid conversation with him.”

—St. Isaac the Syrian

“Love sinners, but hate their deeds, and do not disdain sinners for their failings, so that you yourself do not fall into the temptation in which they abide... Do not be angry at anyone and do not hate anyone, neither for their faith, nor for their shameful deeds... Do not foster hatred for the sinner, for we are all guilty... Hate his sins, and pray for him, so that you may be made like unto Christ, who had no dislike for sinners, but prayed for them.”

—St. Isaac the Syrian

“The Lord loves us so much that He suffered for us on the Cross; and His suffering was so great that we can't comprehend it. In the same way our spiritual pastors suffer for us, although we often don't see their suffering. The greater the love of the pastor, the greater his suffering; and we, the sheep, should understand this, and love and honor our pastors.”

—St. Silouan the Athonite
