Nick will be available one hour before the weekday services for confession. If these times do not work for you, please schedule an appointment with him for confession as you would the rest of the year.

Our Adult Catechism classes are held every Monday at 7:00 PM. Please bring your friends, neighbors and family members who want to learn more about our faith!

Please sign up downstairs to donate flowers for Pascha. Suggested donation of $10.00 per flower. Please provide one name per flower to be remembered during the Paschal Divine Liturgy. Money and names are due Palm Sunday, April 9.

To Ponder

“In the life of the soul, acedia [despondency] thus represents a type of dead end. A distaste for all that is available combined with a diffuse longing for what is not available paralyzes the natural functions of the soul to such a degree that no single one of any of the other thoughts can gain the upper hand!”-Gabriel Bunge

“Take care to work at manual labor, and, when possible, work by day and by night, in order not to be burden on anyone. But also, above all, in order to be able to give [to others], as the Holy Apostle Paul reminds in exhortation. Again, also to overpower the demon of despondency, and to remove other desires [that come] from the enemy. The demon of despondency pounces upon idleness, and every idle person is filled with covetousness, as it is said.”—Evagrius of Pontus

“Why are you filled with sadness, my soul? Why are you so distraught? Trust in God for I shall give praise to him. He is the one who saves me, the light of my eyes, and my God.”—Evagrius of Pontus
