With the blessing of His Grace, Bishop Gregory, we will be having monthly unction services. Unction is one of the seven sacraments of the Orthodox Church. It is not reserved exclusively for the dying or for Holy Wednesday. Rather, it is a healing sacrament which can be performed at any time of the year. It is open to all Orthodox Christians who require healing of both the body and the soul. Please come and experience this healing sacrament.

The Church School Year will begin on September 11. Pani Stacey will be teaching ages 2-8 and Fr. Nick will be teaching ages 9-12. Classes will be held immediately after the Divine Liturgy. If you are interested in helping as a Church School Teacher, please see Fr. Nick.

S&N Roofing and Contracting, owned by Rose Price's son-in-law, has offered to paint our Church Hall as a gift and donation to us. The painting will be done sometime during the summer. Thank you for your generous donation of time and paint to our parish!

Our parish picnic has been postponed and will be held at the rectory on Saturday, September 24 beginning at 1 in the afternoon. Please sign up downstairs to bring food.

Our Youngstown DDD Dinner will be held Sunday October 2 at Dilucia's Restaurant in Warren, OH. Those who have donated $100 to the DDD are invited, guests are $30. If you would like to make a donation to the DDD, please send your money to the Diocesan Chancery; 312 Garfield Street; Johnstown, PA 15906. Your donation can also be made via the secure diocesan website at acrod.org/ministries/dddprogram. A head count is required for the dinner by September 25.

Fr. Nick will be in Connecticut for a family funeral Wednesday thru Friday. If there are any emergencies, please call Fr. Anastasios Athanasiou: (412) 758-1068. Due to the unforeseen circumstances, the monthly unction service for September has been cancelled.

To Ponder

“Men are often called intelligent wrongly. Intelligent men are not those who are erudite in the sayings and books of the wise men of old, but those who have an intelligent soul and can discriminate between good and evil. They avoid what is sinful and harms the soul; and with deep gratitude to God they resolutely adhere by dint of practice to what is good and benefits the soul. These men alone should truly be called intelligent.”

+ St. Anthony the Great

“The person who loves God values knowledge of God more than anything created by God, and pursues such knowledge ardently and ceaselessly.”

+ St. Maximos the Confessor

“The Church, through the temple and Divine service, acts upon the entire man, educates him wholly; acts upon his sight, hearing, smelling, feeling, taste, imagination, mind, and will, by the splendour of the icons and of the whole temple, by the ringing of bells, by the singing of the choir, by the fragrance of the incense, the kissing of the Gospel, of the cross and the holy icons, by the prosphoras, the singing, and sweet sound of the readings of the Scriptures.”

+ St. John of Kronstadt

“We spare neither labors nor means in order to teach our children secular sciences, so that they can serve well the earthly authorities. Only the knowledge of the holy Faith, the service of the Heavenly King are a matter of indifference to us. We allow them to attend spectacles but we care little whether they go to Church and stand within it reverently. We demand an account from them of what they learned in their secular institutes—why do we not demand an account from them of what they heard in the Lord’s house?”

+ St. John Chrysostom
